PARENTING WITH HEART

HOW IMPERFECT PARENTS CAN RAISE RESILIENT, LOVING, AND WISE-HEARTED KIDS

Revell Parents want to be the best person they can for their children, but much of the time they may feel like giraffes on ice--clumsy, unprepared, and in imminent danger of going down. The good news is, our children don't need perfect parents. They need authentic, fully-hearted, relationally engaged parents who can mess up and move on more than parents who always get it right. In this freeing book, respected therapists and bestselling authors Stephen James and Chip Dodd invite parents to let go of perfectionism and micromanaging as they learn to parent from a place of emotional honesty and intimacy. Through their clinical experience and relatable true stories, they show parents that raising children to become capable, loving, and wise-hearted adults is far more about accepting our flaws than projecting an impossible standard to our children that we already know we can't live up to. Parents will learn how to resolve issues from their own childhoods, tune into their feelings and the emotions of their children, and be present with their families through both the best and worst of circumstances.

LOVE GIVES LIFE

A STUDY OF 1 CORINTHIANS 13

Love Gives Life: A Study of 1 Corinthians 13 We are to pursue love as we seek spiritual gifts because love gives life to gifts and love outlives gifts. That's Paul's main idea in 1 Corinthians 13, and this study will help you not only to see that in the text but to seek it in your life. The thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians is about having a love strategy. Paul relativizes what we tend to value most (usually our personal distinctives and niches), places love in central view, and summons us to use every power and resource we have for the good of those whom God has placed in our lives. This is the excellent way of love, and it is worthy of our pursuit. Here's what others are saying about this work: If you're like me, you have either heard or taught love from 1 Corinthians 13. You may even think that you have heard most, if not all of the insights of 1 Corinthians 13. I did. That is, until I read Evan May's take on the text. Evan brings us into Paul's thoughts in a clear and engaging way, which is somewhat hard to do. Not only that, he brings clarity to the definition of love which has been hijacked and is now defined as "undogmatic" and "untheological." However, love is very dogmatic and very theological. In a world where social media has made us, "fall for the delusion that what makes us significant is mainly what causes us to stand out from everyone else, rather than what helps us to serve everyone else," what we all need now is a little bit of love, properly understood that is. Read this book! Curtis Allen Rap artist Voice, author of Education or Imitation: Bible Interpretation for Dummies Like You and Me Evan May's Love Gives Life: A Study of 1 Corinthians 13 is a good example of what Paul says in 1 Cor. 14:26, "Let all things be done for building up." It is brief, unpretentious, but says what must be said to bring the message of the "love chapter" to the heart of the reader. May has been personally moved by Paul's words, and he wants to convey to us the same blessing he has found. He has a wonderful gift for simple, conversational writing, with the most natural and appropriate illustrations. He never assaults the reader, but nurtures him gently, so that we find ourselves growing in grace, almost by surprise. No academic trappings here, but May's understanding of the passage is substantial. I hope that many take the opportunity to learn from this book. Dr. John Frame Professor of Systematic Theology and Philosophy at Reformed

Theological Seminary and author of the Theology of Lordship series The apostle Paul told his dear friend Timothy, with regard to Christian discipleship, "The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith." That is, love is the necessary consequence of the Gospel he preached. Today, that charge is unfortunately blanced by all manner of social and cultural influences, reduced to the idea that "love" is somehow synonymous with quiet and unconditional acceptance. My dear friend Evan May looks back to Paul as the apostle reminded his students in Corinth about the true meaning of love, and why it actually changes the world. The study notes Evan has produced ought to sting a little as we remember that somehow the love of God is both patient and unrelenting toward wrongdoing, both kind and truthful, both eternal and immediate. I recommend this study without qualification, and hope to see more from Evan in the future. Frank Turk Speaker, writer, and blogger at www.teampyro.blogspot.com

HOW TO LOVE LIKE JESUS

A GUIDE FOR CHILDREN AND THEIR PARENTS

CreateSpace How can a child learn to love in action? The bible specifically defines what love in action looks like in the Apostle Paul's first letter to the Corinthians. It is the famous passage "Love is Patient, Love is Kind..." (1 Corinthians 13:4-8). In this book, you and your child will find a kid-friendly explanation of the passage with examples, methods, and engaging questions for applying the passage to children's lives. You can read it all in one sitting with an older child, just a section a day with a younger child, or as a short devotional. The illustrations further provide examples of what love looks like in action and what it does not look like. These are especially helpful when reading the book to younger children. Finally, a book that really explains to kids how to apply the bible to their lives! This book is the first in a series of books written and illustrated Theresa Hemsath. Look for her coming books on The Fruit of the Spirit and on The Roman Road to Salvation.

DARE TO LOVE: 1 CORINTHIANS 13

Rose Publishing Inc The "Love Chapter" in the Bible is one of the most precious passages of all time. The kind of love portrayed in 1 Corinthians is true love, strong and determined--and it is not for the faint of heart. In this beautiful full-color 14-page Dare To Love booklet, you will read the full text of this chapter and understand the teachings and insights in depth. These days, love is a risky adventure requiring not only strength and character, but also a vulnerable, gritty commitment. Paul's famous passage on love, 1 Corinthians 13, is often quoted during weddings, but it has a far greater application to today's world. Dare to Love unpacks this meaty chapter without sentimentalism, examining and applying the hard work of loving another human being, a spouse, child, friend, or neighbor. Discusses the differences in the four kinds of love: Agape (unconditional, God-like), Philia (friendship), Eros (pleasure, sexuality), and Storge (gift-love between parents and children). 1 Corinthians 13 includes principles that bring healing and restoration to marriages and families today. This pamphlet is perfect for people who are engaged, married, or caretakers for the sick or elderly. It also goes well with the movie "Fireproof," the book Love Dare and other marriage enrichment books.

FIRST CORINTHIANS - WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY PARTICIPANT BOOK

LIVING LOVE WHEN WE DISAGREE

Abingdon Press Relationships are messy. We're all different and imperfect, and we can struggle to get along--especially with those who disagree with us. Often we find ourselves divided--even as Christians. How can we work out our differences and disagreements with humility and grace, always showing the love of Christ, while still remaining true to what we believe? The Apostle Paul wrote to the Christians living in Corinth about this very thing. The cultural backdrop of Corinth was even more overtly sinful than our culture today, yet Paul boldly encouraged the Corinthian Christians not to ridicule one another or outsiders but to work together to show the love of Christ. In this six-week study we will explore Paul's first letter to the Corinthians to learn how we as Christians are to deal with differences and divisions--whether in the workplace, neighborhood, school, home, social media community, or church. We'll discover that the answer is living and sharing the radical love of Jesus Christ, and we'll unpack what this means and how we can live it out day by day. The Participant Book includes five days of lessons for each week, combining study of Scripture with personal reflection, application, and prayer. Other components for the Bible study, available separately, include a Leader Guide, DVD with six 25-30 minute sessions, and boxed Leader Kit (an all-inclusive box containing one copy of each of the Bible study's components).

THE FIRST LETTER TO THE CORINTHIANS

Inter-Varsity Press This thorough commentary presents a coherent reading of 1 Corinthians, taking full account of its Old Testament and Jewish roots and demonstrating Paul's primary concern for the unity and purity of the church and the glory of God. Roy Ciampa and Brian Rosner's well-informed, careful exegesis touches on an astonishingly wide swath of important yet sensitive issues, reinforcing the letter's ongoing theological and pastoral significance.

PEACE AND LOVE TO THE WORLD

GOD IS LOVE

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform The word of love in the book is a spiritual weapon meant for our current generation and the message to the generations to come. The prophetic word is the intertwine of the real life situations, visions, dreams and prophecies which I experienced in my way of faith. The challenges which I encountered and how the Lord helped me to pull through in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Nonetheless the malady of hatred which has contaminated the world, it is only peace and love from the Lord which can heal the infectious ulcer which man has suffered. Dignity has been lost in accordance to Hosea 4:6 'my people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge. I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children'. Further, that our Lord Jesus Christ came down with the seed of peace and love to unify the candidates of heaven through the provision of the Holy Scriptures. Let us unite and break the seed of hatred which Satan had planted in the hearts of men. 1 Corinthians 13:3 And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love. This book is dedicated to all my brothers and sisters in the Lord, especially those who are at the verge of losing hope of survival spiritually. It is therefore, here to impart in their hearts with Peace and Love from our God Almighty. The word in this book is aimed at reconciling the people on earth with love so as to cushion the conflicts among nations. It is in accordance to Isaiah 2:2-3 the message in the book has been written and it is therefore inviting all my brothers and sisters from across the world to experience the Holy Spirit with words of great faith in the Lord. The book is here to comfort the sick, the afflicted and those souls who are persecuted by the enemy. It also embraces all the races and does not stigmatize any person as it is based on the true love from our Lord and the message is inspired by the Holy Spirit with a view to unite the people across the globe. I therefore wish the Church, the United Nations, the governments and other charitable organizations to enhance preaching peace among the people in the land for us to have a better world. It is in this line, that the Lord our God came down on earth to save humanity. More so, we should embrace peace and love to survive this world of troubles. The love of God is unconditional, thus, we should follow suit to have a godly love in our hearts or humanity will be wiped out on the face of the earth soonest. The beauty of welcoming peace and love from God is compared to the bond between the earth and the sun and the rain. There is no segregation in the house of the Lord but we are all equal in the face of our creator. Mother Nature has been very kind to us and it reprimands us whenever we err but our Lord Jesus Christ used to curse Nature. We have continued preaching about the importance of spreading the word of God and also His love which has made us to be who we are on earth. The love of God unifies the people and that it cuts through the rod of hatred which is in the hearts of the evil ones. We should therefore embrace the love of God for us to reach greater heights of love, where all religions, race and tribes shall stand tall in the same platform and pronounce to the higher heavens that we are one people. Women and children needs true love from our hearts. I dream of a beautiful world where we shall be protected by the love of God, because humanity on that day shall have total unite. It is common knowledge that Satan has infiltrated our governments, entertainment industry and a lot more circles of life. Therefore, it is time man woke up from the deep slumber and fight for his life or else he will die naked with shame. However, we wrestled the devil for us to have peace and love so that we get saved but the battle has been tough. The Lord has been fighting battles for humanity because God is love. Amen!!

EXPECTATIONS

THEY CAN MAKE YOU OR BREAK YOU

WestBow Press In the book, Expectations: They Can Make You or Break You, Eric Jackson presents some thought provoking information about expectations. Because our expectations are so routine, like breathing, thinking, or walking, he gives many examples to show the importance of expectations. This is an excellent book for families. It discusses different levels of expectations and different levels of faith, including discussions of our expectations of God and prayer. It discusses expectations of family members including expectations for teenagers who want to leave home. Also included are discussions on how decisions and prosperity affect expectations. Rev. Theodore Brown, DD, says The book is profound and consistent with different life experiences. The authors point of view adheres to Christian values in understanding scripture and applying it to everyday life. He gives his audiences insight with the support of his Christian beliefs.
