Book Description - This blank comic book is unlike most available today. It is designed to let you be the master of your creation. This book is for comic book enthusiasts and artists alike. It has clean panels and frames with no speech bubbles or sound effects drawn in for you. I find that when they are drawn in for you, they take up valuable drawing space, and make it so that you have to draw in the space they left for you...limiting your creativity. This book has 160 pages with a brief introduction. Every other page has a different panel with a variety of frames. There are seven chapters for you to create your stories and comic strips. Each chapter has a different set of panels than the previous chapter to mix things up so that you do not get bored. This Blank Comic Book makes great Christmas, Birthday, Easter, Get-Well, and party favor gifts for all ages from young prodigies to Seniors with nothing to do with their time. Great for those long road trips to keep the kids entertained and active. Great for those long Holiday school breaks, spring breaks, and summer vacations. Are you having a themed birthday party for one of your kids? This book is a great party favor for all the guests that attend your child's birthday or even their bar mitzvah or bat mitzvah. Do you have an art class that you are teaching your students how to draw in the Comic medium? This book would make a great required book for the class and would give all of your students a great starting point. Do you have a senior family member in assisted living that likes to draw? This makes a great gift for them to keep their minds active and alert. Imagine the stories they could create. I do hope you enjoy this blank comic book and hope that you will look for future volumes coming soon.
