Shaillé shares her poignant experiences of depression, faith crises, and other battles, both unique and yet common to many in our day. She holds nothing back as she lets the reader dive in to both the good and the bad moments. What makes this book distinctive is Shaillé's use of music throughout the healing process. She shares messages of hope through songs she has written that coincide with the contents of each chapter. Music can be a powerful force for good and for healing, even for those who are a support person to someone currently struggling. Any reader can find encouragement and direction as they face their personal battles. Amharic cultural reader

Otto Harrassowitz Verlag This collection of essays has two purposes: first to give the advanced student of Amharic a sample of the Amharic writing style and secondly to provide information on Ethiopia's cultural background. The texts were written by several Ethiopian university students some 40 years ago on subjects with which they were most familiar such as naming, christening, wedding, burial ceremony, food and drink, the manner of wearing clothes, house construction in Amhara country, daily work of an Ethiopian woman, landholding disputes, beauty, merchant, mercato, country market, artisans, elderhood, priests, dabtara, monkhood, divination, Christmas, Easter, Addis Ababa, the City of Gondar, Harar City etc. Although some time has passed since the collection was compiled the texts convey a good picture of Ethiopian culture. Each Amharic text is given an English translation on the opposite side. The book is completed by an Amharic-English Dictionary of nearly 90 pages and an index of English words and Amharic lexemes.

My Mother Dear

The Grand Miracle

And Other Selected Essays on Theology and Ethics from God in the Dock

Ballantine Books "Captivating reading that builds the faith while it fills the mind with greatness."—Sherwood Wirt, former editor, DECISION Magazine One of this century's greatest writers of fact, fiction, and fantasy explores, in utterly beautiful terms, questions of faith in the modern world: • On the experience of miracles • On silence and religious belief • On the assumed conflict between work and prayer • On the error of trying to lead "a good life" without Christ • On the necessity of dogma to religion • On the dangers of national repentance • On the commercialization of Christmas . . . and more “The searching mind and the poetic spirit of C.S. Lewis are readily evident in this collection of essays edited by his one-time secretary, Walter Hopper. Here the reader finds the tough-mind polemicist relishing the debate; here too the kindly teacher explaining a complex abstraction by means of clarifying analogies; here the public speaker addressing his varied audience with all the humility and grace of a man who knows how much more remains to be unknown.”—The New York Times Book Review
