BERHATIAH

ANCIENT MAGICK CONJURATION OF POWER

ISHTAR PUBLISHING In the Arabic literature, there is the Barhatiah conjuration. The conjuration got its name from the first sacred name in its list of names. Their fame is where any similarity between them ends. The Lesser Banishing Ritual of the Pentagram (LBRP) ritual is a known quantity with a well defined and specific purpose, with a clear historical origin; it is easily translatable, contains mainstream religious names and symbolism, and is suited for beginners in Golden Dawn inspired occultism. The Barhatiah is a conjuration that is shrouded in myth, of unknown origin; it has a multitude of variations, has names that have yet to be properly translated over the span of 800 years, and is useful for a multitude of purposes with promised great effectiveness.

Paix et guerres en Afrique: Les chemins de l'Union africaine

François Bourin Editeur Dans ce second tome de Paix et guerres en Afrique, Charles Zorgbibe poursuit son histoire de l'Afrique contemporaine. Après avoir, dans un premier volume, dessiné la géopolitique de ce continent et brossé l'histoire de l'Afrique coloniale et de l'accession aux indépendances, il se consacre à l'Afrique de l'après-guerre froide. Les chefs d'Etat africains prennent conscience de l'urgence d'une restructuration politique du continent. Une nouvelle organisation de sécurité collective est créée : elle n'est plus un simple syndicat de chefs d'Etat. Les nouveaux principes sont l'Etat de droit et le maintien de la paix. Certes, l'Histoire n'avance pas en ligne droite : coups d'Etat, guerres civiles, conflits régionaux n'ont pas disparu. Mais l'objectif est clair : trouver des solutions africaines aux problèmes africains.

Clara and Mr. Tiffany

A Novel

Random House Trade Paperbacks NATIONAL BESTSELLER It's 1893, and at the Chicago World's Fair, Louis Comfort Tiffany makes his debut with a luminous exhibition of innovative stained-glass windows that he hopes will earn him a place on the international artistic stage. But behind the scenes in his New York studio is the freethinking Clara Driscoll, head of his women's division, who conceives of and designs nearly all of the iconic leaded-glass lamps for which Tiffany will long be remembered. Never publicly acknowledged, Clara struggles with her desire for artistic recognition and the seemingly insurmountable challenges that she faces as a professional woman. She also yearns for love and companionship, and is devoted in different ways to five men, including Tiffany, who enforces a strict policy: He does not employ married women. Ultimately, Clara must decide what makes her happiest—the professional world of her hands or the personal world of her heart.

The Craft of Sociology

Epistemological Preliminaries

Walter de Gruyter The work of the French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu has emerged, over the last two decades, as one of the most substantial and innovative bodies of theory and research in contemporary social science. The Craft of Sociology, both a textbook and an original contribution to epistemology in social science, focuses on a basic problem of sociological research: the necessity of an epistemological break with the preconstructed objects social practice offers to the researcher. Pierre Bourdieu and his co-authors argue in the epistemological tradition of scholars like Bachelard, Canguilhem, Koyre, a tradition that identifies the construction of the object as being the fundamental scientific act. Their way of discussing the issue makes it accessible not only to academics and experts of epistemology, but also to advanced students of social science, using for illustration a wide range of texts from the various social sciences as well as from philosophy of science. The book includes an interview with Pierre Bourdieu and an introduction by the editor to his sociological methodology.

The Scrapbook of Frankie Pratt

What Role for South Africa?

"In Regional Integration in Africa: What Role for South Africa, Henri Bah, Zondi Siphamandla and Andre Mbata Mangu reflect on African integration and the contribution of post-apartheid South Africa. From their different scientific background, they demonstrate that despite some progress made under the African Union that superseded the Organisation of African Unity, Africa is still lagging behind in terms of regional integration and South Africa, which benefitted from the rest of the continent in her struggle against apartheid, has not as yet played a major role in this process. Apart from contributing to advancing knowledge, the book should be a recommended read for all those interested in African regional integration and the relationships between Africa and post-apartheid South Africa. Contributors are Henri Bah, Andre Mbata Mangu, Eddy Maloka and Zondi Siphamandla"--

La terre africaine et ses religions

Editions L'Harmattan L'Afrique plus qu'un autre continent était elle promise à l'immuable ? On aurait pu le croire tant la suite des générations avait su mettre en place une sagesse né de la terre et que mesurait avec exactitude la parole de ceux qui avait autorité pour la proclamer. Une société en ordre qui le reproduisait. Tous les malheurs sont ils arrivés avec l'étranger qui parlait une autre langue, prêchait un autre dieu, disposait d'un pouvoir immense. Peut être bien. Un millénaire d'histoire a disparu en l'espace de deux générations.

Beauvoir in Time

Value Inquiry Book "Beauvoir in Time situates Simone de Beauvoir's The Second Sex in the historical context of its writing and in later contexts of its international reception, from then till now. The book takes up three aspects of Beauvoir's work more recent feminists find embarrassing: "bad sex," "dated" views about lesbians, and intersections with race and class. Through close reading of her writing in many genres, alongside contemporaneous discourses (good and bad novels in French and English, outmoded psychoanalytic and sexological authorities, ethnographic surrealism, the writing of Richard Wright and Franz Fanon), and in light of her travels to the U.S. and China, the author uncovers insights more recent feminist methodologies obscure, showing Beauvoir is still good to think with today"--

Afrodystopie

La vie dans le rêve d'autrui

KARTHALA Editions Le continent noir n'existe pas. Il est une Afrodystopie créée par le rêve d'Autrui. Du rêve colonial du premier président gabonais, Léon Mba, de faire de son pays un département français, au mea culpa postcolonial de son successeur, Omar Bongo Ondimba, en passant par l'utopie mobutiste de l'« authenticité » ; du blockbuster Black Panther, institué en paradigme afrofuturiste de la puissance africaine, à la régulation de la vie sociale et politique africaine par la Mort, cet essai met au jour le paradigme de la vie humaine entrée dans le rêve des abstractions et des choses, celles de l'Argent, de la Marchandise, de l'État, du Corps-sexe, de la Jouissance, devenues dans le monde capitaliste des « puissances mystiques » qui agissent comme des dispositifs d'éblouissement des imaginaires sociaux africains. Dépassant les critiques classiques de l'impérialisme et du néocolonialisme, les théories de la dépendance et les études postcoloniales, cet ouvrage analyse ce rêve afrodystopique dans lequel sont plongées les sociétés africaines et afrodescendantes. À la différence des dystopies littéraires, cette chimère n'est pas une projection dans le futur, mais une composante bien réelle de la violence des imaginaires colonialistes et impérialistes qui structure l'inconscient des rapports de l'Occident aux mondes africains, mais aussi les rapports des États africains à leurs propres citoyens. Avec le concept d'Afrodystopie, Joseph Tonda propose une nouvelle manière de penser les relations entre dominants et dominés à l'ère du capitalisme globalisé.

Astronomy Across Cultures

The History of Non-Western Astronomy

Springer Science & Business Media Astronomy Across Cultures: A History of Non-Western Astronomy consists of essays dealing with the astronomical knowledge and beliefs of cultures outside the United States and Europe. In addition to articles surveying Islamic, Chinese, Native American, Aboriginal Australian, Polynesian, Egyptian and Tibetan astronomy, among others, the book includes essays on Sky Tales and Why We Tell Them and Astronomy and Prehistory, and Astronomy and Astrology. The essays address the connections between science and culture and relate astronomical practices to the cultures which produced them. Each essay is well illustrated and contains an extensive bibliography. Because the geographic range is global, the book fills a gap in both the history of science and in cultural studies. It should find a place on the bookshelves of advanced undergraduate students, graduate students, and scholars, as well as in libraries serving those groups.
