7 DEADLY SINS OF WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

OVERCOME SELF-DEFEATING BEHAVIOR IN WORK AND MINISTRY

Zondervan Unleash your leadership by identifying and overcoming the limitations you place on yourself in the workplace. Women are called by God to flourish in areas of leadership. And for the first time in modern history, women are making their way into strategic positions of influence and leadership within the ministry, public, corporate, charity and voluntary sectors. Certainly, there are still external disadvantages that women leaders face in the professional world, and there's still a lot of work to do. But there are internal hinderances, too, and those you can take charge of today. In 7 Deadly Sins of Women in Leadership, Kate Coleman considers what lies at the root of the many challenges facing today's leaders—women and men—and proposes ways of dealing with them. Effective leadership starts with you. Based on her 35 years of leadership experience, Kate explains how you can: Overcome limiting self-perceptions Establish boundaries Develop a tailor-made personal vision Cultivate a healthy work/life rhythm Stop being a people-pleaser Learn to confront not collude Be intentional with your inner circle Written for every leader from any sector or gender (men could learn a few things from this book too), this proven and practical guidebook will enable you to identify and overcome self-defeating patterns of behavior, in ways that will radically transform your leadership.

USING THE WORD, WORK, & WONDER OF GOD TO INVEST IN WOMEN

---

B&H Publishing Group We all know Jesus commands us to disciple others. But how are we supposed to do this in everyday life? How can women, no matter what stage of life they are in, be a disciple who makes disciples? How can we find time to invest ourselves into others when it feels like our schedules are already full? What is our place in carrying out the Great Commission? In this practical book, Kandi Gallaty helps you develop an effective disciple-making strategy in your life and the lives of others. Disciple Her is filled with Kandi's personal stories, more than a decade's worth of discipleship experiences, and most importantly, her commitment to the Word of God. Kandi doesn't stop at helping women understand what discipleship is—she gives them a practical game plan for weaving it into their weekly lifestyle, and teaching those they disciple to do the same. Disciple Her will be a point of reference for women to use time and time again in the years to come as women intentionally obey Jesus' command to invest their lives into others.

TWO VIEWS ON WOMEN IN MINISTRY

Zondervan Academic The role of women in positions of worship and church leadership is one of the most divisive and inconclusive biblical debates. Two Views on Women in Ministry furnishes you with a clear and thorough presentation of the two primary exegetical arguments so you can better understand each one's strengths, weaknesses, and complexities. Egalitarian - equal ministry opportunity for both genders (represented by Linda L. Belleville and Craig S. Keener) Complementarian - men and women fill distinctive ministry roles (represented by Craig L. Blomberg and Thomas R. Schreiner) This revised edition brings the exchange of ideas and perspectives into the traditional Counterpoints format. Each author states his or her case and is then critiqued by the other contributors. The fair-minded, interactive Counterpoints forum allows you to compare and contrast the two different positions and form your own opinion concerning the practical and often deeply personal subject of women in ministry. The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair-minded and respectful of the biblical text. Each volume is a one-stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own, educated opinion.

A GUIDE TO TRANSFORMATIONAL MINISTRY WITH NEXT GENERATION WOMEN

Kregel Publications With Millennial and Generation Z women coming of age in our churches and society, new approaches to women's ministry are required to meet their distinct needs. Drawing on decades of experience ministering to women, authors Sue Edwards and Kelley Mathews explain how their Transformation Model can energize women's ministry for all generations and in multiple settings. Individual chapters are devoted to applying the Model, which is centered on Scripture and building relationships, to ministry in the local church, the college campus, and cross-culturally in missions. Organic Ministry to Women is packed with practical advice and real-life illustrations of how to implement the principles of the Transformation Model. Edwards and Mathews also profile numerous leading women's ministers like Jen Wilkin, Priscilla Shirer, and Jackie Hill-Perry, drawing wisdom and inspiration from their lives and ministries. Helpful appendixes provide additional resources including sample job descriptions for ministry leaders, a Bible study lesson, and a training guide for small group leaders. A revised and expanded version of New Doors in Ministry to Women, this updated edition takes into account the latest cultural and ministry trends and is an invaluable resource for current and future leaders in ministry to women.

RECLAIMING THE BIBLICAL VISION FOR CHURCH LEADERSHIP

Baker Academic Respected scholar Dorothy Lee considers evidence from the New Testament and early church to show that women's ministry is confirmed by the biblical witness. Her comprehensive examination explores the roles women played in the Gospels and the Pauline corpus, with a particular focus on passages that have been used in the past to limit women's ministry. She argues that women in the New Testament were not only valued as disciples but also given leadership roles, which has implications for the contemporary church.

LEADERSHIP GUIDE FOR GROUP STUDY

Heritage Press Publications, LLC Many Women's Ministry leaders are using The Path to Becoming a Proverbs 31 Wife, as a group study in their ladies' meetings. Here is a leader's guide to help facilitate those meetings. This guide is packed with encouragement, lesson plans and discussion questions, as well as planning calendars, assignments, challenges and prayers. If you or someone you know is considering using these materials in their women's meetings, you should know that many great testimonies are being shared of how God is transforming hearts and marriages through this study! "I purchased Jennifer's book at a Ladies Conference we were both attending with the intention of reading it solely for myself. As I began to flip through it and read the first chapter, I knew this would be a book that all of the women of my congregation could gain wisdom from. We began our study with some very excited wives and some who were hesitant. It was amazing to watch the transformation of some of these wives. They loved their husbands dearly, but really struggled with the "submission thing" and freely expressed that. As each week progressed, I began to see these women come to a biblical understanding of "submission"; I began to see hearts soften and attitudes change. The fingers that were pointing at the beginning gave away to hearts that were open for God to change them. No longer were they looking at their husband's faults and wrongs, but were allowing God to change them and their attitudes and in doing so, He changed marriages. This is a book that not only ministers to the hearts of married women, but singles as well. It is a beautiful book that reminds us that God created marriage and it is a beautiful thing." - Pastor Lisa Parfitt, New Beginnings Church, Pacolet SC "What an amazing time we had tonight at our last Proverbs 31 gathering! It is the beginning of great things. I just want to personally thank Jennifer Rash for her obedience in writing this book, The Path to Becoming a Proverbs 31 wife. Many women are being affected in a positive way when they apply her book to their lives. They are becoming that wife that God has intended them to be one day at a time. I want to encourage the women that do not have this book, please get it. All wives need to read this book. It will impact your marriage greatly." - Christy Desor, Co-Pastor and Women's Ministry Director, New Life Deliverance Worship Center, Spartanburg, SC

LEADING WOMEN WHO WOUND

STRATEGIES FOR AN EFFECTIVE MINISTRY

---

Moody Publishers As more churches add women's ministry programs, there is a growing need to address the issues that naturally arise as women minister alongside one another and to one another. Given the fallen nature of the human heart as well as the complexities of personalities, conflict is an inevitable aspect of ministry. How do women deal with emotions when other women are insensitive, manipulative, or just plain mean? What does the Bible tell us? To be equipped for conflict, women must understand and master strategies specifically related to conflict with other women. Leading Women Who Wound shows women how to effectively deal with conflict within their ministries. Seasoned women's ministry leaders themselves, Sue Edwards and Kelley Mathews walk through several different aspects of conflict resolution including self examination, identification of potential sources of conflict, tools for conflict resolution, and insight on how to prevent and move beyond conflict to minister to those who have been sources of contention. Recognizing that not all conflict results in a happy ending, Leading Women Who Wound gives the tools necessary to minister effectively and move forward with integrity.

THE BIBLICAL MODEL FOR THE CHURCH

B&H Publishing Group Based on the precept that a biblical paradigm for women's leadership must occur under the authority of the local church, Women Leading Women fills the void of research-based textbooks that address academic requirements for the core women's leadership course curriculum and guide pastors on how women can help fulfill the church's purpose. Women will be encouraged to lead and train other women, to engage the culture to reach women for Christ, to involve women in ministry, and much more. Anticipated for primary use in colleges and seminaries, this book is designed for a fifteen-week semester and will include a link to a Web site where teaching outlines and PowerPoint notes for each chapter are provided.

MEN AND WOMEN IN THE CHURCH

---

BUILDING CONSENSUS ON CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

---

InterVarsity Press Evangelicals stand divided in their view of women in the church. On one side stand complementarians, arguing the full worth of women but assigning them to differing roles. On the other side stand egalitarians, arguing that the full worth of women demands their equal treatment and access to leadership roles. Is there a way to mend the breach and build consensus? Sarah Sumner thinks there is. Avoiding the pitfalls of both radical feminism and reactionary conservatism, she traces a new path through the issues--biblical, theological, psychological and practical--to establish and affirm common ground. Arguing that men and women are both equal and distinct, Sumner encourages us to find ways to honor and benefit from the leadership gifts of both. Men and Women in the Church is a book for all who want a fresh and hope-filled look at a persistent problem.

BECOMING A WELCOMING CHURCH

B&H Publishing Group Most church members don't see their churches clearly. In almost all of Thom S. Rainer's consultations, church members perceive their church to be friendly. But as he surveyed guests, he found that the guests typically saw church members as unfriendly. The perception chasm existed because the members were indeed friendly . . . to one another. The guests felt like they crashed a private party. Bestselling author Thom Rainer (I Am a Church Member, Autopsy of a Deceased Church) has a game plan for churches to become more hospitable. In a format that is suitable for church members to read individually or study together, Rainer guides readers toward a practical framework for making a difference for those who visit their church. Churches may use Becoming a Welcoming Church to assess and audit where they are on a spectrum between welcoming and wanting. Additionally, churches can use the companion book We Want You Here to send guests home with a compelling vision for what pastors want every guest to know when they visit.
